

Become a Local Champion on Children's Environmental Health

- Have you been hearing about the effects of environmental contaminants on children and want to learn more?
- Have you taken steps to reduce environmental risks in your own life and want to find ways to tell others?

What are Local Champions?

- Local Champions are people dedicated to children's environmental health issues in their communities
- Local Champions will be supported, resourced and encouraged to teach others about these issues
- Local Champions will receive training in children's environmental health to become local experts in their home communities

The Canadian Partnership for Children's Health and the Environment is offering two 2-day training workshops on children's environmental health for Local Champions.

Where 215 Spadina Ave, Suite 120
Toronto, ON (first floor)

When January 24 and 25, 2008 or February 26 and 27, 2008
9:00 - 5:00 pm
(Choose one set of dates)

Cost Free! Supported by the Ontario Trillium Foundation

RSVP Registration is required
as space is limited

Workshop Description: These training workshops will help Local Champions learn more about how to protect children from environmental exposures at home, child care, school, and in the outdoors. The workshops will provide Local Champions with teaching methods, strategies and resources to help share information about children's environmental health in their communities.

These workshops will be of interest to child care and health practitioners who work in the areas of preconception, prenatal, child and family health.
